Criminal NO. 3:23-cr-30076-SPM

Defendants Motion for Ineffective Counsel

Comes now defendant, Nirav B. Patel and requests the court set this case for ineffective counseling. In support of this motion he states the following:

1) A breakdown of communication with defense counsel.

2) Defendant and Defense counsel has a mistrust with judgement of each other.

3) Defendant has not received a discovery or evidence from Defense Counsel

4) If the court holds a hearing, defendant can voice his concerns to the court and the court should decide whether the defense counsel should withdraw from the case. Wherefore defendant respectfully requests that the court take this motion seriously by hearing at the courts convenience.

Respectfully,

Nirav B. Patel

Dear Kim Freter,

I'm writing you in concerns of my case. I haven't received a discovery or legal documents of any sort. I've called your law firm and tried reaching out to you but you keep stonewalling me. Can you please contact me as soon as possible and inform me of the progress and status of my case so I can inform my family. At this point I feel that I'm receiving ineffective counseling and I'll truly appreciate if you give me more assistance and communication between client and counsel within my case. Please and Thank you

Client Signature M. Patel

Respectfully Submitted,

Kim Frefer

- ineffective Counseling /
- No discovery or legal documents
- Attorney never informed me of the progress of my case. HASN'T sent ME ANY PAPER WORK
- No Plea negotiation or agreement
- I've called and reached out but I'm being stonewalled
- NO ZOOM visits to communicate with me
- No Interpreter Contact At All
Don't Understand Much English
- My Constitutional Rights ARE being violated
- I'm only ONE person and sole provider for my family. I'm trying to get my process going so I can get BACK home.
- I also need to get my Discovery so I can have someone help me with my case.
